box be placed at Brookdale, and that the Truck Company be transformed into a bucket brigade when called to do fire duty in that section of town.

Nearly all the business men in town have signed a paper designating August 9 as "business men's holiday." This will give the employees an opportunity to go on the Essex excursion.

The auction sale of building lots, at the Draper farm, Washington Avenue and Orange Road, last Saturday was very successful. About thirty lots were sold and good prices realized.

A hearing in the case of William C. LaBaugh vs. George W. Frear for two hundred dollars damage to his horse, which was to have been tried before Justice Post on Thursday, was postponed for one week.

A well-known citizen who attended the circus on Thursday afternoon came out disgusted, and said that he had often seen a better show given as a premium on a glass of beer down at Casino Island.

John Lancaster, an employee of E. H. Davey's trunk board factory, had a narrow escape from serious injury last Saturday. One of the knives in the cutting-machine at which he was working broke, striking Lancaster on the arm.

There is a mystery about the alarm of fire given from box 36 on Tuesday night. Members of Active Hose Company declare it was a hoax. Members of the Truck Company deny this and cite facts to prove that the alarm was a bona-fide one.

The Montclair Town Committee will borrow money from the Bank of Montclair to pay the bill for the union outlet sewer construction, recently presented by the city of Orange. The money is borrowed in anticipation of the issuing of sewer bonds.

Rumors having been current on the street that Charles Murray & Son had sold out to the Bloomfield Coal and Supply Company, Mr. Murray desires to announce an absolute contradiction. There has been no proposition entertained by the firm in regard to selling out.

Next Thursday evening the members of Excelsior Lodge, K. of H., will pay a fraternal visit to Progress Lodge of Franklin. Those who contemplate going will meet at Bro. Dawkins's store at 7 o'clock. A good time is expected, as the visit will be similar to an old-fashioned surprise party. Members of the order are cordially invited.

The S. Griffith Association, composed of the mechanics in the employ of the Morris & Essex Division of the D. & W. R. R., will have an excursion to Lake Hopatcong on August 18. A regatta on the lake, in which a number of well-known oarsmen will enter, will be one of the features of the excursion. Numerous valuable prizes will be competed for.

Watessing Notes.
Charles Ernest of Norman Street is off on a vacation trip.

Charles E. Parker is spending his vacation in Connecticut.

Allan Doddworth and family left for California on Monday.

Westcott Street is to be macadamized to the Bloomfield line.

John Gurling has purchased a lot on Dodd Place, East Orange.

A. P. Quinby has a contract for painting Ellor Brothers' hat factory.

James Donnegan has given up his butcher-shop on Willow Street.

The Misses Hannah and Flora Butterworth are visiting friends at Lowell, Mass.

The Stars will play the Actives of Newark this afternoon on the Watessing grounds.

J. E. Rixstine has been visiting his brother, Druggist L. E. Rixstine, during the week.

Archibald and Craig Dailey will go with a camping-out party to Lake Hopatcong next week.

Joseph Lee has the contract for building two houses for Mrs. James Ellor on Grace Street.

Arthur Fletcher spent four pleasant days among the Shakers at Wallingford, Conn., last week.

A number of Watessing young men will go on an excursion to the fishing banks to-morrow.

N. P. Bacon has added a bread and cake department to his confectionery and ice-cream saloon.

Frederick Pilch and family went to Ocean Grove on Wednesday, where they will spend two weeks.

Mrs. Jane Palmer of Illinois is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hampton of Myrtle Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Lawrence left for Trenton Falls, New York, on Thursday, to be absent about two weeks.

Surveyor Olmstead is making a profile map of Watessing Avenue preparatory to the macadamizing of that street.

Miss Annie Mullinix left on Thursday for Franklin, Delaware County, N. Y., where she will spend several weeks.

The defeat of the Stars by the Bloomfield Club last Saturday was a great disappointment to the Watessing sporting fraternity.

A cabinet meeting of the Epworth League of the Watessing M. E. Church was held at the home of Miss Jennie Law on Thursday night.

Alderman Ellor and William Ferguson of East Orange were guests of Dr. A. H. Van Riper at the Hillside Avenue Club-house, Nutley, on Wednesday night.

The regular business meeting of the members of the Watessing Field Club was held on Monday night and the report of the Fair Committee received.

The Orange sewer is being constructed along the north side of the Washington Railroad parallel with the track between Glenwood Avenue and Washington St.

Van Sant Dodd has had plans made for six new dwelling-houses to cost about $3,500 each. Three of them will be erected on Prospect Street and three on James Street.

The Misses Mary and Jennie Wilde and Mrs. Joshua Taylor will leave town on Monday for Schoharie County, N. Y., where they will spend three weeks with Mrs. Robert M. White.

The regular meeting of the Free Public Library Trustees was held on Monday night. William Irwin and Arthur Ellor were elected members. Other routine business was transacted.

The Watessing M. E. Sunday-school has decided to allow all scholars up to thirteen years of age to go free on the excursion to Iona Island. Between the ages of thirteen and seventeen, they will be charged half price.

George H. Wilde and George Lawrence are both good judges of the quality of cigars. They cannot be induced, however, to buy smuggled cigars at any price, and they are both supposed to have very good reasons for not doing so.

The Rev. James P. Faucon, former rector of St. Paul's P. E. Church, occupied the pulpit of that church last Sunday morning and evening. There was a good attendance at both services, and Mr. Faucon was warmly greeted by his former parishioners.

One of the busiest men in town is Station Agent Atherton of the Prospect Street depot. Mr. Atherton is ticket agent, telegraph operator, express agent and freight agent. The increased summer traffic has given him a large number of "trunks of Saratoga" dimensions to wrestle with.

The Chicago and Atlanta of the "White Squadron" and the U. S. man-of-war New Hampshire will be at Peekskill, opposite Iona Island, on the day of the Watessing M. E. Sunday-school excursion to the latter place. The excursionists will probably enjoy the pleasure of seeing a fine naval display and hearing some heavy cannonading. As this was not in the original programme of the excursion, there should be a slight increase in the sale of tickets.

The Olympic Bowling Club had a most enjoyable outing at Brighton Beach by way of the Iron Pier on Wednesday. All the sights were taken in, and they also were taken in by the beautiful ocean. The only episode of a startling nature was when two of the ladies became confused and were lost on the iron pier and became quite desperate in their endeavors to find their way off, when some of the officials found them just as the electric lights were being put out and assisted them in finding their husbands. The club intends to make several short trips through the warm weather, as all the members had such a jolly time and were so thoroughly pleased with the success and pleasure derived from the first.
